Greatest Stories Ever Told

Testimonies by our Leadership

Over the next couple of months, or elders & pastors will be working through theology examinations by group of peers. During this time, we want to introduce you or reintroduce you to the men that will be examined and then officially continue to serve as elders of MFBC.

Pastor Virgil Saltz

Born: August 14, 1939

Married to Ginny on July 29, 1961 in

Taylorville, Illinois

Father of four children, Cynthia, Deloris, John, and Joanna.

I was born into the family of Virgil Saltz in Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

On August 14, 1956 I was born again into God's family: The place was Alameda, California.

On July 29, 1961 I married Ginny in Taylorville, Illinois.

There was very little growth until I got out of the Navy and moved to Nampa, Idaho. Pastor John Bajema called on us and asked about my conversion. He encouraged us to attend Berean Baptist and there I realized that I needed to submit to immersion. So in 1966 I was baptized.

The year 1969 found me taking my wife and two daughters to Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania for Bible college.

I started pastoring at Back Mountain Baptist Church in Noxen, Pennsylvania in 1971.

When I graduated from five years of training, we moved to Houston, Texas and was there for one year.

In 1976 we moved to Taylorville, Illinois where I served as a deacon, Bible teacher for 5 years. Then for another five years I pastored Grace Baptist Church in Moweaqua, Illinois.

In 1986 we moved to Roswell, Idaho. There I pastored for 16 years.

From there I tried to retire but the LORD had other ideas. We have been here at MFBC since 2002.
