

PSALM 67

8 7 8 7

1 God be merciful and bless us;
    shine upon us with your face,
2 That the earth may know your actions
    and all lands your saving grace.

3 O God, may the peoples praise you; s
    may all peoples sing your praise.
4 For you judge the nations justly,
    ruling over every race.

    May they sing with joy and gladness;
    may they all rejoice as one.

5 O God, may the peoples praise you
    as they all unite in song.

6 Then the land will yield its harvest;
    God will pour his gifts abroad.

7 God, our God, will surely bless us;
    all the earth will fear our God.
