Sufficiency of Scripture

“His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence” (2 Peter 1:3). Take note of the gifts we enjoy from God and His Word in Psalm 19:

- A REFRESHED soul
- A simple person made WISE
- A JOYful heart
- A DISCERNING perspective

After reading through that list, I’m doing pretty good. I’m encouraged and refreshed. I’m challenged. I’m excited. I’m hopeful. These are derived from a simple reading in Psalm 19:7-11

The LAW of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul.

The STATUTES of the Lord are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

The PRECEPTS of the Lord are right, giving joy to the heart.

The COMMANDS of the Lord are radiant, giving light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever.

The DECREES of the Lord are firm, and all of them are righteous.

They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold;

they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the honeycomb.

By them your servant is warned; in keeping them there is great reward.”

This is why we read our Bibles. There is significant and eternal value and reward for our souls. Everyday, we are spiritually depleted by our own sinful nature, our fallen culture and our deceitful enemy. So, dive back into God’s Word today and “taste and see that the LORD is good...” Psa. 34:8

How are you doing now? What passages have been most refreshing to you, lately? How have you encouraged someone with God’s Word? How valuable is God’s Word to you?
