MISSION FOCUS

March

Pat & Kellis Melson

Papua New Guinea

- We are moved into our home—thank you for praying!
- We have felt the prayers, and they have strengthened us which is a good thing because moving is EXHAUSTING!
- The closing was delayed again but we are moving in, now advanced to the "settling in" phase. Our family is under one roof.
- Helping parents now means doing most of the cooking at our house instead of at their house. Praise the Lord!
- We still need to construct a bedroom closet and have some furniture gaps to fill.

Happy Passover

Passover "Pesach"

From www.JewsforJesus.org

Passover Quick Facts

Hebrew Name: Pesach

Meaning of Hebrew Name: Uncertain, either having to do with passing over or protection

English Name: Passover

Western Calendar Month: March/April

Seder: The Seder is the festive ceremonial meal held on the first two nights of Passover in the Diaspora and in Israel on the first night.

Jewish Calendar Date: Nisan 15

Duration: Eight Days

Establishment of Passover: See Exodus 12

Purpose of Passover

One of the most significant and popular Jewish holidays, Passover (Pesach) recalls and rejoices over the Israelites' redemption from slavery in Egypt. Pesach takes place during Nisan, a Jewish month of joy (or at least a month in which some prohibit mourning) and one of the four traditional beginnings of the Jewish calendar year (Exodus 12:2: "This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you."). Pesach marks the beginning of the Israelites' freedom and asks them to partake in the Jewish story of enslavement and redemption. For Messianic Jews, Seders allow them to join with the historical and present experiences of their people as they recall God's redemption from the slavery in Egypt. They also join with others who believe that Yeshua is their "Pesach sacrifice" who redeems them from slavery and sin. For what drove Pharaoh to enslave the Jews was what drives every person when we do what is wrong or fail to do what is right: sin, the slavery within us. But there is a promise of redemption extended to those who trust in and follow Yeshua.

Do you trust in Yeshua, "Christ our Passover who was sacrificed for us"?
