

ONE GLORIOUS EASTER MORNING

The most glorious event in human history took place one Easter 2000 years ago.

Why is that so? =

Ways people celebrate this occasion:

The phenomenal meaning of what took place that Easter morning and how it impacts every human in history:

Thoughts from Solomon in Ecclesiastes:

Hope portrayed by Job:

Assurance from David in the Psalms:

Revelation from Daniel:

Eye-witness report from the Apostle Peter:

Remarkable insights from the Apostle Paul:

Death, destiny, and decisions are all connected to the resurrection of the Son of God. The grave has been conquered, destiny with the risen Lord has been established, and the decision to embrace the living Lord of life lies before each of us. Let's choose life – eternal life guaranteed by the Savior who loves us.