Introduction:

vs. 21 - "When Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him; and so He stayed by the seashore."

I. JESUS AND THE DISTRESSED FATHER - DEALING WITH DESPERATION (vs. 22-24)

A. His Distinction (vs. 22-23, 35a)

"one of the synagogue officials named Jairus came up"

"and on seeing Him, fell at His feet and implored Him earnestly"

"My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and lay Your hands on her, so that she will get well and live."

B. His Distress (vs. 35b-36)

"Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?"

"But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, 'Do not be afraid any longer, only believe.'"

II. JESUS AND THE DISEASED WOMAN - DEALING WITH DISEASE (vs. 25-34)

A. Her Disorder (vs. 25-26)

"woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years, and had endured much at the hands of many physicians"

"spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse..."

B. Her Design (vs. 27-28)

"after hearing about Jesus, she came up in the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak"

"For she thought, 'If I just touch His garments, I will get well.'"

C. Her Deliverance (vs. 29)

"Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction."

D. Her Discovery (vs. 30-34)

“Immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that the power proceeding from Him had gone forth”

“turned around in the crowd and said, ‘Who touched My garments?’”

“And His disciples said to Him, ‘You see the crowd pressing in on You, and You say, Who touched Me?’ ”

“And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.”

“But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.”

“And He said to her, ‘Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your affliction.’”

III. JESUS AND THE DEAD CHILD - DEALING WITH DEATH (vs. 35-43)

A. Her Death (vs. 35-38)

“While He was still speaking, they came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, ‘Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?’ ”

“But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, ‘Do not be afraid any longer, only believe.’”

“And He allowed no one to accompany Him, except Peter and James and John, the brother of James.”

“They came to the house of the synagogue official; and He saw a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing.” (Jeremiah 9:17; Amos 5:16)

B. His Declaration (vs. 39-40)

“And entering in, He said to them, ‘Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep.’ ”

“They began laughing at Him.”

“But putting them all out, He took along the child’s father and mother and His own companions, and entered the room where the child was.”

C. Her Deliverance (vs. 41-43)

“Taking the child by the hand, He said to her, ‘Talitha kum!’ (which translated means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”)

“Immediately the girl got up and began to walk, for she was twelve years old.”

“And immediately they were completely astounded.”

“And He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said that something should be given her to eat.”
